

Congress May Not Be Able to Adjourn Today

By JOE HALL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress struggles on toward final adjournment today but it remains highly doubtful whether the 1961 session can wind up tonight as most legislators hope.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana told newsmen it will be a miracle if the session doesn't run into next week. Others said they had not given up hope on finishing up tonight, however.

The Senate has most of the remaining business and Mansfield called his colleagues in at 8 a.m. EST. The House was to convene an hour later.

Three appropriations bills are the most important legislation standing in the way of adjournment. They are:

1. Foreign aid, which has passed both branches. The Senate voted $4,196,000,000, the House $539 million less. Conferees did not meet Friday but Mansfield said he thought behind-the-scenes talks had paved the way for quick agreement today.

2. A $3.91 billion public works bill, carrying funds for rivers and harbors, flood control, reclamation and atomic energy projects. This has passed the House; it is to be debated in the Senate this morning.

3. A $1 billion catch-all final money bill, loaded with supplementary funds for dozens of agencies. It has passed the House and was cleared Friday by the Senate Appropriations Committee.

The Senate argued for almost 12 hours on a compromise Mexican farm labor bill that would extend for two years the present program of importing workers.

Late Friday night Mansfield won an agreement to vote on the bill an hour after the Senate convenes today. It appeared certain the measure would go to President Kennedy; the House has passed it.

Lost in the Senate shuffle was another controversial measure, the Du Pont bill, also cleared by the House. It would ease the tax burden on Du Pont Co. stockholders if they receive General

Says Guards Must Serve When Called

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus said today that no member of an Arkansas National Guard unit being called to active duty will be discharged by the state.

Faubus said pressure is being put on him to discharge certain guardsmen but that he is taking a stand that nobody will be turned loose.

The federal government, he said, can free guard members as hardship cases if necessary.

"I am not going to discharge doctors, lawyers and football players and send to camp ordinary farm boys and workers," Faubus said after a conference with Maj. Gen. Sherman T. Clinger, the state's adjutant general.

"I decided I wasn't going to decide between important people and ordinary people where duty to the service is concerned," Faubus said.

Faubus said he and Clinger decided that temporary deferments could be allowed in some cases but added that those deferred would still have to serve their hitch.

He used as examples Harold Horton, University of Arkansas football player, and Lamar McMan, member of the Baltimore professional football team.

Guard units ordered to active duty both are members of National but have been granted delays until the end of the football season, he said.

The Defense Department has promised to consider requests for hardship discharges without delay once the units are federalized, the Governor said.

"I sent word to the Defense Department," Faubus said, that if I turn one out I am going to turn out everyone who asks to get out. Of course they (Defense Department) didn't want that so I think that from now on when they call up these units they will freeze all the personnel in the call."

Weather

Cloudy to partly cloudy and warm today and tonight with a chance of a few thunderstorms in extreme northwest portion.

They Grow Bananas at McCaskill

LUCRETIA BOLT, 15, DAUGHTER OF MR. and Mrs. Luther Bolt of McCaskill, Rr. 1, is pictured above showing bananas on a tree owned by Elvins Merchant N. P. Nesbitt. The tree is 2½ years old and this is the first time it has borne fruit. Only four bunches remain with some 12 to 15 others succumbing to wind and disease.

Carnival Time at Fair Park Following Big Livestock Show Prade 2 p. m. Monday

Opening of the Third District Livestock Show Monday with a big parade at 2 p. m. not only means display of livestock, exhibits and special shows, means carnival time too.

Almo Exposition Shows of San Antonio is bringing to Hope one of the largest carnivals ever to show here. The big trucks will arrive Sunday and will be ready for business Monday night.

Among the many circus type side shows to delight the kids is Monkey Town U. S. A. in which 25 training monkeys perform. The group includes the ape family, a 450 pound papa, 300 pound mama and 40 pound baby Susie.

The show includes a big fun house and several new rides such as the Scrambler, the Spudnick, along with the electric bumper, giant ferris wheel, merry-go-round, tilt-a-whirl, octopus and a complete kiddie land with the brand new helicopter. Equipment is new and modern and all rides are safe.

The show offers plenty of fun for the youngsters and the old folks too.

Delinquency Bill Signed by JFK

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy ceremonially signed today a bill under which he said the federal government will help local communities stem the tide of juvenile delinquency.

The measure sets up a 3-year, $30 million program of federal grants for work in that field.

The bill provides for $10 million of federal money a year for three years to help pay for demonstration projects to develop new ways of cutting down youthful offenses, for training personnel and for other aid.

States, local communities or nonprofit groups participating would have to make matching contributions.

U.S. May Have Changed Stand on Berlin Issue

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

NEW YORK (AP)—Officials said today that United States policy on Berlin and the future of Germany stands unchanged, but evidence increased that some kind of new and more elastic approach to a settlement of the Berlin crisis may be developing.

The key to the situation seems to lie in the next moves to be made by Soviet Premier Khrushchev.

If he indicates to the Western powers that he is ready to agree to a compromise way out of the war-threatening dispute, he seems likely to find the West willing to consider a number of changes. If he tries to dictate the terms of settlement, however, the West position will undoubtedly be hardened.

News dispatches from Berlin Friday night said American officials are telling West German authorities that Communist East Germany is a fact of life and that the West Germans must face up to it. The dispatches spoke of discussion of the possibility of letting the Communist regime share some power over access to West Berlin.

The import of the Berlin dispatches is that the United States, at least informally, is advising the West German government to consider dealing with the reality of an East German state. That would mark a radical change in West Germany's long-standing policy and introduce a new element into overall Allied policy.

In a statement issued in Washington and New York the State Department characterized reports on this subject from Germany as highly inaccurate. The statement did specify which reports or what details it considered inaccurate. It did say that President Kennedy and Secretary of State Dean Rusk have defined U.S. policy on Germany and Berlin.

Privately officials said U.S. policy on Germany has not changed, but no one has said it would never change. It is in this connection that the problem of sounding out Moscow on possible negotiations becomes crucial. The Soviet demand for some kind of East German control over Berlin access routes, for example, would be an issue in any negotiations.

The question of whether there are to be negotiations is now under discussions between Rusk and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko here in New York. They talked for 4½ hours Thursday and plan to meet again next week.

Rusk told Gromyko that the West is willing to negotiate but not on Khrushchev's terms. For the Western powers the critical issue is whether Khrushchev will accept a broader negotiating base—whether he will agree to put on the table not only his proposal for an East German peace treaty but also the wider problems of Germany and European security.

What seems to be going on now that last Sunday's West German elections are out of the way—is an effort on the part of some American officials to get the West Germans to take a fresh look at where they stand and how, in the long run they most effectively work toward reuniting their country.

Negro Sends Daughter to Soviet School

NEWARK, N.J. (AP)—A Negro laborer is sending his teen-age daughter to school in Moscow because he says he feels Negroes have more educational opportunities in the Soviet Union than in the United States.

William Clark of Newark said today his daughter, Huldah, 14, will leave Saturday from Idlewild Airport for Copenhagen, Denmark.

In going to Moscow, Huldah is taking advantage of an offer reportedly made to her last Oct. 8 by Soviet Premier Khrushchev during his trip to the United Nations.

According to Clarence Coggins of Jersey City, chairman of the Committee for the Promotion of Education of Negroes in Russia, the Soviet government will pay all of Huldah's travel and living expenses for an indeterminate period.

Huldah's father, who is vice chairman of the group, said he would like to send all his six children to school in the Soviet Union. Huldah is the oldest of the Clark children.

Seems Fairest Season of the Year Could Only Be the Fall Season at Time of the Fair

By MARY ANITA LASETER
Star Feature Writer

If the witch in "Snow White" had asked the looking glass on magic mirror "What is the Fairest Season of the year?" no one would have been surprised if the answer had been "The Season of the Fairs."

That, in Hope, means right now Sept. 25-30.

Though the imagined answer may not be surprising, some facts about fairs in a recent issue of "Grit" newspaper caused this reporter to look twice. For instance, did you know that fairs existed in Old Testament days and that people don't really know when they began? The earliest fairs were held in connection with church feast days.

The day of the fair was almost as joyful as Christmas, or Easter, or Thanksgiving. The great attraction was the friendly atmosphere, and that holds true today. This is one time that crowds and harsh voices evoke only smiles. After all, whoever heard a "barker" with a bell-like quality to his voice?

From religious significance the fairs of long ago gradually shifted to the commercial aspect of things. Merchants saw an opportunity to sell their wares and devised various means to attract crowds. These methods included free entertainment on the streets by jugglers, tumblers and musicians as well as a parade to get crowds to come to little shops set up outside of town.

In this country New Haven, Conn., held the first local fair. The year was 1644, and interest centered around farm products and livestock. As our country grew, so did the wave of fairs until County Fairs engulfed the land from coast to coast every fall. Hope felt the splash of its first fair in 1887. However, the first state fair in the U.S. had occurred in 1840, and by the turn of the century they had become international.

Carnivals and side shows became an integral part of fairs in this land of ours and even today's district livestock shows usually include a small edition of the old-time carnival. To be sure livestock form the nucleus of the events, but efforts have been made the last few years to revive large participation in displays of handicraft, particularly by women.

From religious to commercial to agricultural the emphasis at fairs has changed. But certain things have not changed. People are still the most important part of a fair. And, somehow the people and events at a fair provide interesting conversation and remembrance throughout the coming months of winter.

Pressured to Up Cotton Allotments

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman is under strong pressure to increase 1962 crop cotton planting allotments over this year.

A committee from the National Cotton Council—an industry organization representing growers, ginners, merchants and manufacturers, Thursday urged the secretary to place the allotments at not less than 20.25 million acres compared with 18.5 million this year. The committee said that the allotments should be even larger to assure the nation of ample supplies in view of current uncertain international conditions.

The American Farm Bureau Federation and cotton state legislators have taken a similar stand. There is strong feeling among department officials, however, that the government should tighten up on cotton production to help reduce costs of the cotton control and export subsidy program. Allotments must be set by Oct. 15.

Trio Steals Car, Tragedy Strikes

MEMPHIS (AP)—Deputies said two escaped Missouri state mental hospital patients were captured Thursday when their car swerved out of control as they tried to outrun pursuing officers.

Sheriff's Lt. D. L. Jones said George Donald Vaughn, 24, of Overland, Mo., and Mildred Weaver, 39, of Springfield, Mo., escaped injury in the crash. The couple told officers they had stolen the car—the third they had taken over since they escaped from the hospital at Fulton, Mo., Wednesday night.

A WASHINGTON BOY, Henry Rowe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Moss Rowe, leaves this weekend for Richmond, Va., to compete his tractor driving skill against drivers from 20 Eastern States. He is the Arkansas champion. Calvin Caldwell, county agent, will accompany him. Henry, 16, is a veteran of five years as a tractor driver, president of the Jr. Production Credit Assn., a 4-H club officer.

School May Seek Slice of General Fund

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Education Association announced today it may sponsor a proposed constitutional amendment to earmark part of general revenues for the public schools.

Forrest Rozzell, the AEA's executive secretary, said the proposal would define just what are general revenues and freeze an "equitable portion" for the schools.

Public school appropriations now are made solely by legislative act.

Rozzell said the AEA board instructed its attorneys to look into the matter at a meeting last Saturday.

Rozzell said the attorneys also would study the status of $417,000 earmarked for livestock shows by an act of the legislative session which ended Thursday.

The money was designated for the shows by one law, but they didn't get it when Senate opponents blocked appropriation measures.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus and his advisors said the allotment still holds, and Faubus added he expected a future legislature to appropriate the money for the shows.

West Coast Ship Tiep Threatened

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A West Coast shipping tieup is scheduled Saturday, barring last-minute agreement between ship-owners and the Masters, Mates and Pilots Union.

Capt. Robert Durkin, president of the dock officers West Coast local, said picketing is expected to start about noon Saturday.

The dock officers and the Pacific Maritime Association broke off negotiations Thursday night as an 80-day Taft-Hartley law injunction true expired.

The dispute is the only one remaining unsettled of a series involving half a dozen unions which brought on a national maritime strike last June.

The West Coast action would affect 136 cargo and passenger ships operated by 13 shipping companies.

Durkin said time will be allowed for removal of perishable cargoes before picketing is started. He said time is also needed to consult other maritime unions.

Spring Hill Adult Classes to Start

Spring Hill School's adult education classes will start Tuesday night, Sept. 26, at the school auditorium. The classes will meet at 7:30 p.m.

Russia Revives Drive for a 3 Man UN Board

By TOM HOGE

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Just one year ago today Soviet Premier Khrushchev began a shoe-pounding campaign to bludgeon the United Nations into replacing Dag Hammarskjold with a board of three men.

Then fate handed the Communists a tragic opportunity: Hammarskjold's death. Now their campaign is beginning to boomerang. They seem to be pounding too hard with that shoe.

With the Asians and Africans fearful of the vacuum created by Hammarskjold's death, Moscow apparently had hoped to stampede them into backing its three-headed "troika" plan for a board representing the Communist, Western and neutral nations.

But instead of a stampede, the Soviets' latest campaign loosed a tide of resentment among the smaller nations. For many of them the United Nations is their major foreign policy forum and they hesitate to see it destroyed.

A number of smaller countries had toyed with the idea of setting up a troika-type board of U.N. undersecretaries to run the far-reaching U.N. organization until a new secretary-general could be chosen. Most now are coming around to the U.S. position that a single chief must be named either on a stop-gap or permanent basis.

The shift is reflected in a move by a group of neutrals for the General Assembly to name an interim secretarial chief. More than 30 countries are reported to have lined up behind it.

U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk attempted to give the neutrals a push Friday by appealing for the assembly to defy Soviet opposition and chose "an outstanding world leader" as temporary secretary-general.

The neutrals were reported to have decided to wait until after President Kennedy addresses the assembly on Monday to put forward their plan formally. The President is expected to call for strengthening the United Nations, and it would be hard for him to skip the problem of the vacant secretary-general's post.

The sponsors still have to settle on a candidate. The United States is known to favor Mongi Slim, this year's assembly president. Another possibility is U Thant of Burma, who has strong Asian and African support.

Belgians Ask Ban to All Nuclear Tests

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP)—The Interparliamentary Union, grouping 530 members of parliaments representing more than 1.5 billion persons in 51 countries throughout the world, today urged all states to refrain from conducting nuclear weapons tests.

A resolution to this effect was adopted by the union's 50th annual conference.

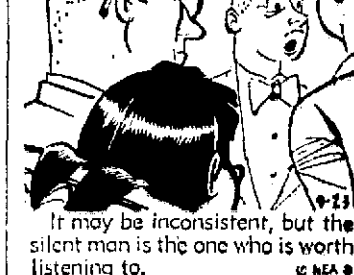

Delegates from the U.S.S.R., Bulgaria, Hungary, Poland, Romania and Czechoslovakia voted against the resolution, submitted jointly by the Japanese and Argentine groups. Libya abstained.

In a dramatic appeal in favor of the resolution, Shunichi Matsuno, a native of Hiroshima, Wednesday had urged delegates to support it, saying "Japan was the first, and we hope the last, nation to experience the horrors of the atomic bomb."

The United States and South Viet Nam lost a fight to delete from a resolution a sentence urging a quick solution to the Red Chinese representation question in the United Nations.

The Interparliamentary Union, organized in 1889 by two pacifist-minded legislators from Britain and France, is composed of members of parliaments. It discusses political, economic social, cultural and international questions but has no legislative power.

Mrs. Bob Lewis was welcomed as a new member of the local Jaycees, and there were 13 members attending the dinner meeting.

Peace Corps Is Made Permanent

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy signed today legislation giving the Peace Corps permanent status, and said it would "assist other nations toward their legitimate goals of freedom and opportunity."

A large gathering of Senate and House members looked on as Kennedy placed his signature on the bill and joshingly praised Peace Corps Director Sargent Shriver as "one of the most effective lobbyists Washington has seen."

Shriver, the President's brother-in-law, testified frequently on the measure in Congress and has headed the Peace Corps from its beginning. He received one of the pens Kennedy used to sign the bill.

Some 13,000 Americans have volunteered for Peace Corps work abroad, Kennedy said, and almost 1,000 will be overseas or completing their training in this country by the end of this year. By next July, he added, 2,700 will be abroad or in the last stages of training.

Lawyer to Head Foreign Aid

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Foreign Relations Committee approved today the nomination of Fowler Hamilton, 50, a New York lawyer, to head the nation's foreign aid program.

CHAPTER XXX
Belinda figured she'd waited long enough for Frank to come crawling up the front steps. The silly boy needed a little urging, at first, and thereafter she could prod him with the point of a ski pole if necessary to accelerate the pace. After the girls left, she called MacBeth's. If she didn't find him there, that meant he was still out with the Cowgill woman.
He was home. Why, naturally. His interest in that colorless little Cowgill person was no more than kindness based on his love of geology. But rocks were not going to fill the great void in Frank's life, and no one knew that better than Belinda.
"I'm expecting you to join me at dinner tomorrow night," Belinda cooed. "Like old times, just the two of us. I need some sound advice on investments, and you were always so wonderful at that, remember?"
"I'll be busy tomorrow evening," "Well, we'll make it the following night then. I—" "I'm afraid not, Belinda. Good-night, Belinda."
Stephanie called her up at five the next afternoon.
"We all want to thank you for your kindness in allowing us the use of your house, Mrs. Snoddy. It was so nice of you, but we don't wish to impose on you further. We think the performance is now at a stage where we can rehearse in smaller groups, so we won't trouble you any more." Belinda felt as if she had swung a whirling left hook at a ghost. Before she could recover the conversation was over.
That cinched it. A slimy plot engineered by that Cowgill woman, who now realized that Belinda had caught on. Crench College, indeed. Why, the crummy institution no doubt taught courses in Rendezvous Fixing.
Ah, but the Cowgill woman hadn't heard the last of this affair. There were many ways to dehide cals.
When the Crench girls returned Friday from a joyous day of scrambling over Paleozoic sediments, Glubby observed them with fond and fatherly eyes as they disengaged themselves from the jeeps. Splendid figures, no doubt about it.
He thought Miss Cowgill had gone to her room when he asked Stephanie, "All set for the big performance tomorrow?" Stephanie gave him a murderous look, and Miss Cowgill stepped in sight from the office of Snoddy's jeep. "What performance is

Discovery to Advance Use of Electricity

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Scientists at Westinghouse Electric Corp. have created a supermagnet which the firm believes will revolutionize almost every aspect of man's use of electricity.

Creation of the one-pound, doughnut-size supermagnet was announced Thursday. Scientists say it has the power of a conventional electromagnet weighing 20 tons and the size of a car.

Dr. J. K. Hulm, associate director of Westinghouse Research Laboratories, predicts it will be useful in generating and distributing electricity; for harnessing nuclear energy for peaceful purposes and for lightweight power plants for interplanetary space ships.

The big breakthrough came with the development of a new superconducting wire. The wire loses all electrical resistance at a temperature of 450 degrees below zero Fahrenheit and does not lose its superconductivity because of the magnetism it creates.

Common Law Wife Faces New Problem

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE
Dear Helen: I lived as a common-law wife with a man for two years because I dreaded the reaction of my family if I married. I am their sole support. This man was constantly asking me when I would be able to make the marriage legal.
During the last year I was hospitalized for ten months. The man stood by me and never missed a visiting hour. A month after my discharge from the hospital I went to the home of my family to recuperate.
Three months later I received a letter from a "husband" saying he had dated a schoolteacher and she is now pregnant. He says he is still deeply in love with me. I feel sorry for the girl and feel he should marry her if only to give the child a name. What can you suggest? Do we dispose of community property? What about the rings I have been wearing?—Sorry

Dear Helen: My daughter, 18, met a boy in service. He is 21 and of a different religious faith. She has been strictly brought up. The boy seems nice. We have never met any of his family but plan to next month.
My pastor said he would try to stop them before they get serious. If they should decide to marry, what chance of a happy marriage would they have? My husband and I are definitely against interfaith marriages. If you have any leaflets on this subject please send them to me.—Mrs. L. P.
Dear Mrs. L. P.: There have been many happy marriages between people of different religious faiths—and there have been unhappy ones. Sometimes other factors, added to the religious one, decide.
In this case, if you and your husband are definitely against such a marriage, that in itself is an extra burden for the marriage to bear. How does the boy's family feel about it? Ask them. A young couple cannot be wholly happy, knowing their families are not.
Your daughter is young, and the boy has been lonely. I suggest that they be asked to wait, to have other dates and other friends within their own faiths. Chances are that both will recover from

Cites Need of Aerospace Armed Forces

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Air Force said today that interplanetary space is a military medium—one in which the Air Force must have a dominating role.

Gen. B. A. Schriever, chief of the systems command, said the first space weapon—the intercontinental ballistic missile—inevitably will be followed "more quickly than some people realize," by new weapons potentially more destructive.

"For this reason the aerospace force of tomorrow must be able to operate in space and to detect and counter any threat in that arena," Schriever said.

Gen. William F. McKee, chief of the logistics command, disclosed that that agency already is planning air material depots to be stationed in space and on other planets "where needed and when prudent."

The space plans of the two major commands were disclosed in papers prepared for delivery to the annual convention of the Air Force Association.

Department Store Sales Dip Some

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Department store sales in the 8th Federal Reserve District the week ended Sept. 16 were three per cent below those of the similar week in 1960.

The Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis reported today that sales drops of seven per cent in St. Louis and two per cent in Louisville offset rises of three per cent in Memphis, two per cent in Little Rock and nine per cent in seven small cities.

District sales to date are one per cent below those for the comparable period in 1960.

IRS Director May Be Transferred

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Federal building sources said today that Curtis R. Mathis, 52, Internal Revenue Service director for Arkansas, may be transferred to another post.

Mathis was out of the state, and there was no official confirmation. The reported new position was identified only as being in the Midwest.
Mathis has been with the federal agency more than 25 years and has been director here since July 1, 1957.

Will Call If Necessary, Lawmen Told

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy told leaders of both parties today he would contact them promptly if the international situation requires after Congress adjourns.

Republican and Democratic leaders of House and Senate said they would be available in the event of an emergency.

Leaders are aiming for adjournment Saturday night.

Kennedy called the leaders to breakfast at the White House just before departing on a trip that will take him to the United Nations for a speech on Monday.

Both Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana and Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois said there was general agreement that the leaders could be contacted within 24 hours. Dirksen added this would apply to all members of Congress except those abroad.

Dirksen reported that Kennedy's only comment on former President Dwight D. Eisenhower's speech raking the Democratic administration was that "it was quite a dinner in Chicago."

Eisenhower delivered his sharpest criticism of the Kennedy administration to date at a dinner honoring Dirksen in Chicago last Saturday night.

Kennedy invited the top Democrats of both Senate and House to breakfast before taking off for his summer home at Hyannis Port, Mass., on Cape Cod. Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson sat with the group but left early to bid formal farewell to departing President Manuel Prado of Peru.

During the weekend at Hyannis Port, Kennedy will polish the speech he is to deliver to the United Nations General Assembly Monday.
Dirksen predicted one of the last hurdles to adjournment—agreement on foreign aid spending—would be cleared with an appropriation that will be "not too unacceptable." He said only about $200 million is involved in dispute between members of a Senate-House conference committee.

Woman Charged With Kidnaping

DOWAGIAC, Mich. (AP)—Margie Craft, 35, a farmwife and the mother of two sons, was held today on a charge of kidnaping a 7-year-old boy and demanding $15,000 for his release.

The boy, Tom Hoff, was released unharmed two hours after he was taken from a Dowagiac school on a ruse Thursday. Two hours later Mrs. Craft was arrested as she approached the release scene.

Sheriff Richard Dool said Mrs. Craft admitted the kidnaping and said she carried it out in hopes of raising funds to pay doctor bills of her cancer-ridden husband Karl, and "get him off the farm" where they live outside Decatur, Mich.

Hospital Services May Be Restricted

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Officials say that activation of four National Guard and Army Reserve medical units at Little Rock may cause a temporary restriction of some services at two Veterans Administration hospitals and the University Medical Center.

Thirty seven staff members—doctors and technical and administrative personnel—will be lost by VA hospitals at Little Rock and North Little Rock.

The medical center will lose five faculty members, a member of the clinical faculty, 11 resident physicians, two interns and three medical students.

Stolen Art Found in a Garage

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A Palm Springs real estate salesman who police say admitted he took paintings valued at $670,000 "so I could draw attention to myself and make a big splash," succeeded.

Edward Henry Ashdown, 29, of Costa Mesa, Calif., led police Thursday night to a bus depot and rented garage where officers found the four art works stolen Sept. 10 from the Bel-Air mansion of industrialist David Bright. W. Ashdown, arrested late Wednesday, first denied taking the two Picassos, a Modigliani and an Afro. But when the district attorney's office issued a complaint charging him with suspicion of robbery and grand theft, police said he admitted the crime.

Police traced Ashdown through fingerprints found in Bright's home.
Ashdown said he had no intention of selling the paintings.
In the Hollywood bus depot police found Modigliani's "The Choccolier" rolled up in a suitcase stored in a luggage rack.
Picasso's "The Portrait of Sebastian" and "Looking Through the Window," and an Afro abstract were rolled together in a plastic garment bag and hung in the closet of a West Los Angeles garage Ashdown said he rented as a storage spot.

Dr. Richard Brown of the Los Angeles County Art Museum, who verified the authenticity of the paintings, said the "Portrait of Sebastian" had flaked somewhat because it had been rolled too tightly.
Ashdown told police he "cashed" the Bright mansion when he visited as the guest of Bright's mother-in-law, Lottie Newmire.

A gunman knocked at the Bright door the night of the robbery and pulled a pistol from a bouquet of gladioli when the maid answered, the paintings.

War, Catastrophe Khrushchev Says

BERLIN (AP) — Premier Khrushchev said today war over Germany would "inevitably lead to a nuclear world catastrophe." His words came in a message to the opening session of the Communist-dominated World Trade Federation meeting. Two hundred delegates from 40 countries are taking part in the East Berlin meeting "for a German peace treaty and the peaceful solution of the Berlin problem." Khrushchev reiterated his proposals for solution of the German problem—signing of a peace treaty with both parts of Germany and turning West Berlin into a free city.

... the Book of Faith, something to hold to when you realize you cannot make it alone. Grateful women and men have called it a "rock in a weary land, a light in the dark, a refuge in time of storm." God called it His word. It contains the prologue to the true meaning of Valley Forge, the duties and obligations of every American citizen, Counsel and advice to the wise and the foolish. If we cling to the Bible, God will hold us when we ourselves are no longer able to hold the Book. Then take this Book of Faith in both your hands and discover a solution to every problem you have. I offer you the Book and the God your fathers trusted. They were not ashamed nor were they forsaken.

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old are shown with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you" form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCHGOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

The Churches of This Community, Are the Only Institutions Which Have as Their Main Function, the Transforming of Human Lives They Are the Sign Boards Pointing the Way to God.

Sponsors of these messages urge faithful church support. Through this series of pages the appeal is for all men to stand up and be counted . . . to combat Communism on all front . . . to be faithful to God.

Our Ministers Are God's Servants Who Call the Signals Against the Organized Forces of Evil. They Invite You to Enlist On the Side For God. . . to Come to Church.
